

EXPERT

FACILITATION

to work with you and your team,
group, department or organisation

We offer you facilitation and/or chairing for...

- Team events
- Awaydays
- Planning days
- Meetings at all levels
- Exploring ideas
- Finding creative solutions

We work closely with you to plan an effective programme for either a day or half-day to achieve the results identified by you.

We offer team and group members maximum opportunity for input prior to the day, in absolute confidence.

We promise...

- Excellent time-managed sessions on the day.
- A range of activities to enhance discussion.
- Sensitive guidance to deal with challenging issues.
- A summary of events, activities and decisions.
- Fair, affordable rates for planning and delivery as well as on-going support.

We also promise...

No climbing on ropes, no walking on hot coals and absolutely no karaoke – unless, of course, that's what you want to do!

Others have said...

“An excellent day. We were able to tackle tricky subjects in a safe and supported way.”

“The pre-session emails were a real bonus. This meant we didn't waste any time on the day and got straight into good, meaningful discussion.”

“We worked hard, had fun and made several lasting decisions – just what we needed!”
